ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December, 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 50 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property. All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Friday, Dec. 13.

The Committee to whom was referred the Memorial of the Stanton Convention, and the Memorials and Petitions from several counties, praying for the call of a General Convention, for the purpose of amending the defects in the State Constitution, have according to order, taken that subject into consideration, and beg leave to submit thereupon the following REPORT.

It appears to your committee, that at various times since the year one thousand eight hundred and one, respectable portions of the good people of this Commonwealth have petitioned the General Assembly to devise ways and means of amending the Constitution of the State, or of taking the sense of the qualified electors upon that subject; and that their petitions were rejected in the years 1802, 1803, 1805, 1807, 1810, 1811 and 1815.

It further appears to your Committee, that during the session of the General Assembly of 1806, a resolution, authorizing the sense of the people to be taken upon the question of calling a Convention, passed the House of Delegates by a majority of that house representing a large majority of the people; which resolution was rejected by the Senate.

It further appears to your Committee, that during the last session of the General Assembly, a bill having for its object the purpose above mentioned was rejected in the House of Delegates by a majority of ninety to eighty-four votes.

On this occasion, policy second the claims of justice, if any considerations but those of justice can be required in an appeal to the legislature of Virginia.

The grievance complained of is most heavily felt by a part of the country which is separated from the rest by a natural barrier; the two sections, too, differing somewhat from each other in habits and manners, and not very closely connected by the bonds of commercial intercourse. The present injustice, which the progress of our population steadily every day increases, tend still further to alienate the western from their eastern brethren, and to lessen that united feeling and action in which consists the safety and strength of a state.

Although it were found to produce no practical evil, the present invidious distinction must ever be the fruitful parent of local jealousy and discontent, and unfriendly to the public happiness, which it is the favorite object of all good governments to promote.

Justice, also, to the eastern section of the State recommends the application of the Land Tax, by which the lands of different sections are taxed, not by the simple and just rule of their actual value, or annual product, but according to geographical position, operates very injuriously on our Eastern brethren. The undue burden of taxation which they bear, being generally, but without reason, considered as the price paid for their undue weight in this Legislature, this anomaly in legislation is not likely to be remedied until the Constitution shall be amended.

It further appears to your committee, that in addition to the Counties, represented in the convention at Staunton, the counties of Washington & Tyler elected deputies, who from accidental causes, were unable to attend.

It does not appear to your committee what number of individuals, in the several counties represented in the Staunton Convention, voted for the election of the deputies they respectively sent; but it does satisfactorily appear, that although in some of those counties, the number of votes was small, in most of them it was large and in some it was almost unanimous.

From the evidences thus collected and detailed by your committee, of former attempts by the people to amend the State Constitution on reviewing the votes given in the two legislative efforts before mentioned, and from the concurring testimony of several members of your committee, representing counties which did not send deputies to the Staunton Convention, who state the wishes of their constituents to amend the constitution, your committee cannot but be of opinion that a large majority of the qualified electors of the state are in favor of amending the constitution. Such, indeed, would have been their opinion, independently of the convention at Staunton; but that assembly your committee think, has placed the subject beyond the reach of doubt.

Your committee having examined the complaints of the memorialists, find that of the white population of Virginia, agreeably to the census of 1810, there are 122,748 between the coast and the head of the water, 207,850 between the latter and the Blue Ridge; 120,259 between the Blue Ridge and the Alleghany; and 91,777 between the Alleghany and the Western frontier, whose actual share in legislative power, compared with that which they are justly entitled to, according to the present number of the General Assembly, is exhibited in the following table:

38 counties below the head of tide water, having 64 delegates, entitled to 45
55 counties east of the Blue Ridge, having 70 delegates, and entitled to 76
14 counties west of the Blue Ridge, having 23 delegates, and entitled to 44
19 counties west of the Alleghany, having 38 delegates, and entitled to 64.

Thus, it appears that the country west of the Blue Ridge has not its due weight in the legislature of the country; and that the two middle sections have a majority of votes, although they contain a majority of nearly two thirds of the whole state. If we examine the counties individually which compose these sections, the injustice is still more apparent; while they are each entitled to two delegates, several of them have less than one fifth of the population of others.

The senatorial districts, comprising several counties in each, do not admit of being accurately distributed into the same 4 classes as the counties; but if the state be divided into two sections, it will be found that the Eastern elects 20 members, while it is entitled to but fifteen, and the Western elects but four, though it is entitled to nine. Your committee are aware that the distribution of the state into Senatorial Districts, was made by the ordinary legislature, and is not fixed by the constitution; but a distinction having been once adopted, it has been long doubted, whether it be susceptible of change, without infringing upon vested constitutional right.

A representation so unequal, so repugnant to the principles which we most fondly cherish, and of which we most proudly boast, seems well to justify the complaints of the memorialists, and to warrant the General Assembly in lending that aid in procuring redress which is competent for them to give.

On this occasion, policy second the claims of justice, if any considerations but those of justice can be required in an appeal to the legislature of Virginia.

The grievance complained of is most heavily felt by a part of the country which is separated from the rest by a natural barrier; the two sections, too, differing somewhat from each other in habits and manners, and not very closely connected by the bonds of commercial intercourse. The present injustice, which the progress of our population steadily every day increases, tend still further to alienate the western from their eastern brethren, and to lessen that united feeling and action in which consists the safety and strength of a state.

Although it were found to produce no practical evil, the present invidious distinction must ever be the fruitful parent of local jealousy and discontent, and unfriendly to the public happiness, which it is the favorite object of all good governments to promote.

Justice, also, to the eastern section of the State recommends the application of the Land Tax, by which the lands of different sections are taxed, not by the simple and just rule of their actual value, or annual product, but according to geographical position, operates very injuriously on our Eastern brethren. The undue burden of taxation which they bear, being generally, but without reason, considered as the price paid for their undue weight in this Legislature, this anomaly in legislation is not likely to be remedied until the Constitution shall be amended.

It further appears to your committee, that in addition to the Counties, represented in the convention at Staunton, the counties of Washington & Tyler elected deputies, who from accidental causes, were unable to attend.

It does not appear to your committee what number of individuals, in the several counties represented in the Staunton Convention, voted for the election of the deputies they respectively sent; but it does satisfactorily appear, that although in some of those counties, the number of votes was small, in most of them it was large and in some it was almost unanimous.

From the evidences thus collected and detailed by your committee, of former attempts by the people to amend the State Constitution on reviewing the votes given in the two legislative efforts before mentioned, and from the concurring testimony of several members of your committee, representing counties which did not send deputies to the Staunton Convention, who state the wishes of their constituents to amend the constitution, your committee cannot but be of opinion that a large majority of the qualified electors of the state are in favor of amending the constitution. Such, indeed, would have been their opinion, independently of the convention at Staunton; but that assembly your committee think, has placed the subject beyond the reach of doubt.

the probability that the majority wish to give their legitimate weight in the government, of form the most persuasive evidence, that the good people of this Commonwealth are desirous of revising their present constitution; yet on this subject there should not be even a pre-ject of doubt.

The fundamental principles of government should not be subjected to alteration, most should not be subjected to alteration, and inequivalents. Your committee therefore think that the sense of the people should be taken, as to their wishes for a convention, before a Convention is called.

Your Committee, aware that a great diversity exists in opinion as to the particular amendments which our constitution requires, and fearful that the dread of innovation may deter many, from embracing the whole instrument to revision, who are desirous of a partial reform, think it most prudent, at present, to think it most prudent amendments as they conceive will challenge the assent of every citizen who is disposed to do justice and receive it. There are, equality of representation in both branches of the Legislature, equality of taxation—and a provision for such future alterations as experience, the only sure test of political theory, shall suggest.

Resolved, That if a majority of the persons thus qualified to vote at the ensuing General Elections, shall appear to be in favor of a convention, the Executive shall immediately cause Elections to be holden, for members of such convention, in the several Congressional Districts; each elector, so qualified, voting for as many Deputies to such Convention as shall be equal to one for every thousand of the whole white population of such District. The members so elected shall assemble at on the day of for the purpose of making the foregoing amendments.

BAITIMORE, Dec. 20.

Latest from Eng and

We have been politely favored by a friend with Norfolk papers of 16th and 17th Dec. two days later than the mail, from which we extract the following:
On Saturday arrived at this port, the fine fast sailing ship Indian Chief, capt. Edward Watson, in the short passage of 37 days from London. To the politeness of capt. Watson, and an obliging friend, we are indebted for regular files of the London Times, Morning Chronicle, and Public Ledger, to the 30th October, being the latest dates. Their contents are utterly uninteresting.—No reduction had taken place in the prices of Grain and Flour on the contrary, we are advised that they were advancing pretty rapidly. The Times of the 29th, states that the quantity of Corn in the King's warehouses is not above 200,000 quarters, at the utmost, and that by the time the British ports come to be opened to receive Corn those ports from which it should come will be blocked up by the ice. By the last mail from Holland, it appeared that the prices of Grain were also rising on the continent, and letters from Hamburg stated, that the orders for Wheat from England could not be executed within the limits specified, on account of the sickness of the demand. Letters from Antwerp, however, informed that vessels were loading with grain to start for the English ports as soon as they should be opened.

Exchange was declining: that on Paris was 35 10. The variation in the foreign exchange is ascribed to the expectation of the ports being opened soon for the importation of corn. Sugars had risen 3s. per cwt. in consequence of the advantage which the fall in exchange gave to exporters. Numerous sales of stock had taken place with a view to raise money to purchase foreign bills which had become a profitable business.

Belair Castle, the splendid mansion of the Duke of Rutland, near Grantham, in Lincolnshire, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 24th Oct. It was only insured at 40,000l. The paintings alone were said to be worth twice that sum!

LONDON, Oct. 29.

We lament to see by the Gazette that the average price of wheat, in the week ending the 12th inst. was 93s. 9d. We copied a paragraph from another paper, stating that the average of the last six weeks of the quarter went only to ascertain whether the ports should be open for the whole of the subsequent quarter, or only for six weeks of the quarter. Upon reference to the act it will be seen, that by the clear provisions of the act, if the price is above 80s. the ports will be open for the whole quarter. There are, we understand, about 200,000 quarters of Foreign Wheat in granary ready to be their way from the Baltic with grain; so that no apprehensions need be entertained of bread rising to a higher price.

The Museum will be open for the reception of Visitors, on Monday morning and Saturday afternoon from 9 o'clock.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive; and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & foetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face oated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chills—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it likewise the mildest and most cur tain, remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, whose in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism; gout, asthmatic, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals, (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the moribund slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings-in, &c.

Public Sale.

WILL be sold, at public auction, on Tuesday the 7th day of January next, being the second day of January, at the late residence of Alexander Henderson, of Dumfries, the personal property at the mansion house. It is useless to enumerate particularly, but amongst many other articles are such as follow:

A large quantity of bedding of superior quality; a piano; an elegant violin; a new fashionable carriage with harness and a pair of horses; 3 milch cows; 40 or 50 hams of prime old salted ware, etc. etc.

On this property a credit of 3 months will be given, the purchaser giving bond and security, bearing interest from the date if not paid punctually.

Five slaves are for sale, viz. a first rate female cook, a likely well trained girl of 14, a young man of good character a rough blacksmith, and two valuable farming negro men, one about 25, the other about 35 years old. The one about 25, to be sold as near Fauquier court-house as may be, to be near his wife and the other for a like reason near Leesburg. Inman Horner, Esq. will sell the youngest. These people may be seen at Dumfries till the day of sale, and on that day, but will not be publicly exposed—the executor does not deal with foreign purchasers or their agents—they need not call, and are asked not to do so. Cash will be asked for the servants.

The dwelling house itself with its appurtenances will be sold on very moderate rate and accommodating terms. The house is spacious and convenient; the out houses are good, and the garden prepared with great labor and taste, so as to be at once remarkably productive and handsome. The society of the village is very agreeable and a bargain may be had in this property.
